

Weekends of January 17 to February 8, 2015
Every Saturday, Trippe&Bouffe at the Fête des neiges!

Montréal, December 16, 2014 – The 32nd edition of the Fête des neiges de Montréal is issuing an invitation to lovers of great food with the Trippe&Bouffe evenings taking place from 4 to 8 p.m. on Saturdays, January 17 through February 8, at Parc Jean-Drapeau. Festival-goers will be able to enjoy original and diversified fare, including the offerings of a half-dozen winter street-food trucks set up near the Tube Slide, which will be turned into a Disco-tube with light shows, a DJ and entertainment for the occasion. Admission to the Fête des neiges de Montréal site is free, as are the food trucks.

Arouse your taste buds!

From German poutine, Neapolitan pizza baked in a wood-fired oven, plates of raclette cheese over sautéed potatoes, Greek-inspired sandwiches, Indian cooking, brochettes grilled on a brasero, to soul-warming soups or traditional Québec cantine food fare, there's something to cater to every taste! And the choice doesn't get any easier for sweet teeth: potato doughnuts, cupcakes, beaver tails, maple taffy on snow, cotton candy, marshmallows browned on the fire, and lots more. Complemented by some hot wine, a coffee spiked with alcohol, or a Rickard's beer and the evening is just getting started!

An indispensable pass, the ACCROPASSE

To enable visitors to derive maximum benefit from the many activities, the Fête des neiges de Montréal is offering visitors the ACCROPASSE a pass that costs $15 and provides unlimited access to the Tube Slide, Ferris wheel (weekends of January 17 to February 1), the Carousel (available weekend of January 7-8) and Zip-line during the eight days of the Fête. In addition, there are discounts on equipment rentals (cross-country skis, snowshoes, skates, sleds and snow scooters and on various restaurant services.

The Saturday evening Trippe&Bouffe events are produced in conjunction with the Fête des neiges de Montréal by the Société du parc Jean-Drapeau through the participation of Rickard's, l'Association des Restaurateurs de Rue du Québec (ARRQ), La Ronde and Coca-Cola.
