

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Aquazilla, a Brand New Aquatic Course Unique in Montreal!

To celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Jean Doré Beach, a new attraction unique in Montreal is awaiting visitors this summer at Parc Jean-Drapeau: Aquazilla, an obstacle course on the water! The refreshing adventure starts on June 18 and ends on September 7, 2015. Hurry up and come have a blast with your family and friends.

What is Aquazilla? A unique 30-meter-by-35-meter inflatable structure (the size of 5 tennis courts!) comprised of obstacles, slides and platforms designed to provide a breathtaking experience to those looking to have a blast in the water.

Is there any aquatic circuit comparable to Aquazilla in Montreal? Aquazilla is unique in the greater Montreal area. And it's the perfect activity to get you through hot and sunny days that our recent weather seems to herald. Kids' birthdays, summer camps, parties or celebrations of any kind... Aquazilla suits any occasion if you're looking to jump and splash around in the highly entertaining aquatic course.

Only minutes away from downtown Montreal, the Aquazilla park is accessible by subway. To get there is easy as pie: get to the Jean-Drapeau metro station, on the yellow line. From there the 767 La Ronde / La Plage bus will take you directly to the Jean-Doré Beach, where you'll find the Aquazilla course. Consult the Parc Jean-Drapeau's website to plan your ride.
